Visas

Entry requirements Kyrgyzstan

To enter Kyrgyzstan, you need a passport that is valid for 3 months after the return date. A visa for Kyrgyzstan is for US, EU and Swiss citizens not required for a stay of max. 60 days.

Every traveller is responsible for compliance with the entry, health and customs regulations. Information at: <https://www.evisa.e-gov.kg/index.php>.

Access by plane

To access our base in Suusamy, you need to fly to Manas International Airport (FRU) in Kyrgyzstan, located 25 kilometres north-northwest of the capital Bishkek. Most Airlines transit through Istanbul or Moscow. This destination is serviced daily by Turkish Airlines, Aeroflot and many other airlines.

You can book your flights with your travel agency. If you wish, we can also suggest various flight options to you.

Luggage

With Turkish Airlines, you have a 30 kg luggage allowance. There is no additional charge for ski bags, and they are not included in these 30 kg.

Although with Turkish Airlines, we have rarely had problems with any lost luggage items, we suggest you carry your ski/snowboard boots with you as hand luggage. Should your luggage be lost or delayed we can help you with all equipment needed for heliskiing but replacing your own comfortable ski boots is almost impossible.

At the end of the stay, the transfer to Bishkek leaves from Suusamy on Saturday at the end of the afternoon, after the day of skiing around 17h.
